usha mittal, vivekanand, father agnel vashi, sies nerul, shah and anchor, compare this colleges and give me the rank as i want to takr admission in CS/IT or typically coding field, my percentile is 95.

With 95 percentile in MHT-CET and your goal being CS/IT, coding, software development, AI, and product-based companies, here's how I would rank these colleges.

Overall Ranking (for CS/IT)

Rank	College	Recommendation	Why?
1	SIES Graduate School of Technology	★★★★★	Best overall balance of placements, coding culture, faculty, and industry exposure among these options. Consistently preferred for CS/IT. Gurus+1
2	Fr. Conceicao Rodrigues Institute of Technology (Father Agnel)	★★★★☆	Strong academics and disciplined environment. Good reputation but very strict attendance and academic policies. Placements are decent. Gurus+1
3	Shah and Anchor Kutchhi Engineering College	★★★★	Good CS branch, decent placements, improving coding culture. Generally comparable to FCRIT, though I would place it slightly below. Reddit
4	Swami Vivekanand College of Engineering	★★★	Average placements but acceptable for CS if you work hard independently.
5	Usha Mittal Institute of Technology	★★☆	Good infrastructure and some high packages are reported, but placement consistency and coding ecosystem are weaker than the colleges above. Also note that it is primarily a women's engineering institute under SNDT University. UMIT+1

Since you want Software/AI Development

From what you've shared previously, you're interested in:

- AI Engineering
- Generative AI
- Backend Development
- Product companies
- Coding-heavy career

In that case, college matters less than branch. You should definitely prefer:

- Computer Engineering
- Computer Science
- Information Technology
- AI & DS
- AI & ML

Avoid lower branches if your aim is software development.

Can you get these at 95 percentile?

At 95 percentile, your chances are approximately:

- ✅ SIES GST – IT/CS: Possible depending on category, CAP round, and spot rounds.
- ✅ Father Agnel – IT/CS: Possible, especially in later rounds or institute level.
- ✅ Shah & Anchor – CS/IT: Good chance.
- ✅ Vivekanand – CS: High chance.
- ❌ Usha Mittal: Not applicable for male candidates, as it is a women's engineering institute.

My Final Preference Order

1. 🥇 SIES GST (CS > IT > AI/DS)
2. 🥈 Father Agnel Vashi (CS > IT)
3. 🥉 Shah & Anchor (CS > IT)
4. Swami Vivekanand
5. Usha Mittal (only applicable for eligible female candidates)

One more suggestion

With 95 percentile, you may also have a realistic chance at colleges that are generally stronger than some of the above, depending on the year's cutoffs and CAP rounds, such as:

- Vidyalankar Institute of Technology
- Don Bosco Institute of Technology
- Atharva College of Engineering
- Xavier Institute of Engineering

If you tell me:

- your category (OPEN/OBC/SC/ST/EWS),
- whether you're applying through MHT-CET or JEE Main, and
- whether you are from Home University (Mumbai University),

I can prepare a complete preference list of 30–40 Mumbai colleges in the exact order you should fill them in CAP counselling to maximize your chances of getting the best CS/IT seat.

माझा एक अतिरिक्त सल्ला

95 percentile वर तू फक्त या कॉलेजांपुरता मर्यादित राहू नकोस. खालील कॉलेजेसही नक्की विचारात घे:

1. VESIT, Chembur
2. Vidyalankar Institute of Technology
3. Don Bosco Institute of Technology
4. Atharva College of Engineering

जर तू मला तुझी:

- Category (OPEN/OBC/EWS/SC/ST)
- Home University (Mumbai University आहे का?)

सांगितलीस, तर मी मुंबईतील CS/IT साठी Top 30 कॉलेजांची CAP Preference List (क्रमाने) तयार करून देईन, ज्यामुळे फॉर्म भरताना सर्वोत्तम पर्याय निवडता येतील.
